O'NEILL SAYS
HE NEVER TOOK BRIBE MONEY

Former Police Corporal Declares Loorz Did Not Pay Him 'For Any Purpose Whatever'; 'Knew of Gambling'

Sergeant Fergie Shows Record in Which Lottery Houses Were "Pulled" and Fined During Long Period of Time

Thomas O'Neill, former corporal of police, indicted with former Chief John H. Nedderman and David W. Cockrell, came upon the scene in August, 1917, that alleged gambling was going on at the club. It was O'Neill's first appearance in the so-called graft cases, and his direct testimony consisted of a single important question and answer, a denial that he ever took any money from Hermann Loorz of the Bartenders' Club for any purpose whatever.

In a cross-examination that was fought at every step by Philip M. Carey, counsel for defense, O'Neill stated that he knew as early as September, 1917, that alleged gambling was going on at the club, that the club was on his beat, that he was never informed by Chief Nedderman that gambling was going on there; that, instead, he got his information from a private citizen, and that he never made any arrests there from September, 1917, to the following August.

POLICE SERGEANT IS CALLED TO STAND.

Robert Fergie, police sergeant, was the only other witness of the morning, appearing for the defense, which is now putting on its evidence. Fergie brought the police records to show that lottery house arrests were made both before, during and after the period in which the Chicago say they paid money for protection.

Much of this testimony was fought by the prosecution as being irrelevant. One showing, however, permitted to the effect that to the effect that a certain raid in September, 1917, cost the lottery house proprietor $1200 and that he was sent to jail for sixty days.

Deputy District Attorney A. G. Agnew conducted the cross-examination of O'Neill. He drew from him the statement that he was assigned to the beat where the alleged gambling was going on at the Bartenders' Club in September, 1917, when Nedderman became chief of police.

"You knew," he asked O'Neill, "that the man's name was Dorey and that a personal animosity existed between him and O'Neill, but the question was ruled out."

"Where did you get your information that alleged gambling was going on at the Bartenders' club?" witness was asked.

"From a citizen," was the reply. "Later he departed at some length at giving the name of his informant, but at the court's direction, said he was informed by a 'taxicab driver named Moon.'"

"The information you received from Moon in December, 1917, was the first time you ever learned that alleged gambling was going on at the Bartenders' club?" Agnew demanded.

"No, sir," was O'Neill's reply. "In answer to one or two questions as to times when he was on the beat, which included the Bartenders' club, he said that he had a memorandum of these matters at home. The prosecution demanded that he produce this memorandum."

SHOE DEALERS
CONDENSED
TRADE REPORT

Everybody From Packers Who Control Hides, According to Investigators, Down to Retailers, Accused of Extortion

Many Companies Earned Over 25 Per Cent; Prices Not Justified by Study of Conditions, Says Federal Commission

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The high price of shoes was declared to be due to excessive profits taken by every factor in the shoe production industry, in a report by the Federal Trade Commission, made public today.

The commission's report covers the four-year period from 1914 to 1918. It said that the shoe manufacturers had made unwarranted increases in the price of "pucker" hides, the report pointed out that the price differential between their hides and "country" hides—hides of a lower grade—has increased "far beyond the usual proportion."

Charges of excessive profits against the tanners were supported by "the high rates of return on investments" in both industries following the price increases.

The public, said the report, "had to pay prices for shoes that not only could not be justified because retail shoe dealers took too much profit, but because the consumer the excessive profits received by butchers for hides and also the excess profits of tanners and shoe manufacturers."

20 PER CENT PROFIT NOT JUSTIFIED, REPORT SAYS.

"Some relief from the intolerable prices paid by consumers for shoes may be had," the commission said, "by—"

"A rigid enforcement of the laws against monopolistic control of commodities;

"Legislation forbidding producers of hides engaging in the tanning business; and

"The adoption of a device in the distribution of shoes that will enable the consumer to get the best value for his money."

Even in 1914 the tanning industry was prosperous," said the report, "in perhaps a majority of cases, earnings were 10 per cent or more and in some cases as high as 25 per cent."

And in 1917 it was rather unusual for a company to earn less than 20 per cent. A similar comparison for manufacturers of many shoes that were made in 1916 and 1917 as they did in 1914."

ADVANCE OF COST OF MATERIALS CONSIDERED.

In framing its conclusions that profits were unjustified, the commission said it took into consideration a natural advance in the cost of leather and all materials due to the war.

"During the years 1914 to 1917," the commission says, "the cost of producing a leather shoe increased from 5 to 20 cents a pound of leather produced. About 85 per cent of the increase was due to the increased cost of hides and the increase in the cost of other materials used in the production of shoes."

Immediate Increase of Pay or Nationwide Strike; Ultimatum Laid Before Hines by Transportation Employees

BULLETS FOR PROFITEERS IS INTIMATED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—Representatives of fourteen different railroad unions now have joined in a communication to Director General Hines asking immediate increases in wages. This is the first instance on record in which all the railroad unions, representing 2,000,000 employees, have acted as a unit.

Hines said he had not time to analyze the communication but it seemed a formal presentation of wage demands already made public.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—Organized labor may attack a strike squad for some of those responsible for the wave of profiteering sweeping over the country, Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, told the House interstate commerce committee today.

Stone appeared before the committee at the hearing of the Plumb bill for railroad control by the public, the operating management and labor.

LABOR ASKS CONTROL OF U. S. INDUSTRIES.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—Labor will "go to the people with its demand for nationalization of the railroads, Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, told the House interstate commerce committee today.

"What would be your action if this committee should not adopt your plan of government ownership?" asked Chairman Esch.

"I would go to the people and tell them that the railroads are the property of the people and that they should be controlled by the people," Stone replied.

"No, sir; I do not believe the railroads would, although I am speaking largely for the locomotive engineers, the last four days of the strike, which it through."

U. S. PLAN FOR LEAGUE WAS NOT PRESSED

Secretary of State Tells Senate Committee That the Ishii Agreement Was Made in Ignorance of Secret Pact

Asked if American Ideas on League Were Drawn by New York Lawyers, Lansing Says 'I Think That Is Not True'

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—Secretary Lansing told the Senate foreign relations committee today that the American plan for a League of Nations was "not pressed" at Versailles, and never was presented to the full peace conference.

The secretary, appearing at a public hearing of the committee, said he did not know whether a copy of American draft still was in existence. He presumed, he said, that the draft was in the possession of President Wilson and added that a copy might still be in the President's possession.

Discussing the Shantung provision of the treaty, Secretary Lansing said that the American plan for a League of Nations was "not pressed" at Versailles, and never was presented to the full peace conference.

CALIFORNIA LEADS U.S. IN JAIL REFORMS

BERKELEY, Aug. 5.—The eyes of the nation are on California as the leader in criminological reforms, according to A. J. Renoe, director of the national bureau of identification at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, a delegate to the meeting of fingerprint experts in Berkeley.

"California boasts the only state bureau of identification in the United States which has been created by law," declares Renoe. "Its results have more than justified its creation and the accomplishments of the bureau have surprised even the most enthusiastic supporters."

That the establishment of such a bureau in every state of the union would do more to apprehend and identify the criminal than any other agency, is the declaration of Renoe. At the present time, he declares, that identification was handled in 79 out of 125 state penitentiaries with California holding a signal place in the work by having the state bureau.

Sleuths of Nation Meet in Berkeley Methods Discussed by Men-Hunters

BERKELEY, Aug. 6.—Sherlocks, tall and short, fat and slim, old and young—all varieties of "men from all parts of the nation"—invaded Berkeley today and are holding the citadels of the city against the onslaught of the "men-hunters" and their friends.

A half hundred of them, all experts in their line, answered the call this morning at the Hotel Shattuck when the fifth annual convention of the International Association for Identification was opened by President Harry Caldwell of the bureau of identification of the Oakland police department.

The convention is strictly a male gathering with but one exception. The lone female delegate is Miss Elizabeth Westfall, a daughter of the late Sheriff of Santa Clara county, who holds the distinction of being one of but a half dozen honorary female members of the association. The majority of the delegates form an ex-officio part of the convention of the four-day session which opened this morning.

WESTERN METHODS SHOWN.

What the "wild and woolly west" is doing to not only catch the elusive criminal but to prevent persons from becoming wards of the state, will be shown by the delegates during the remainder of the week. Oakland and San Francisco police departments and jails will be visited by the delegates as guests of the peace officers of both cities.

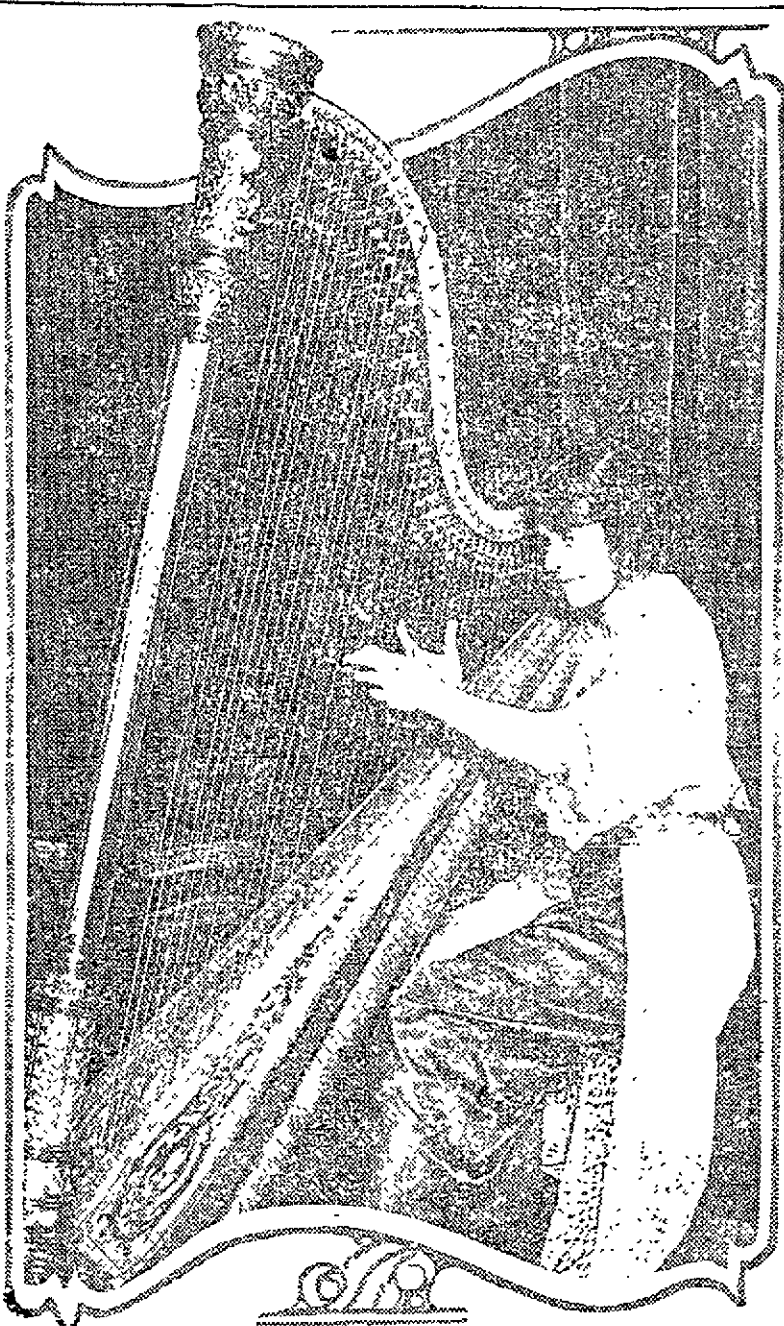

Clarence K. Morrill, superintendent of the State bureau of identification, the only one of his kind in the United States, presented facts and figures before the delegates this afternoon to show how California has taken the lead in crime prevention and detection.

Since the inauguration of the bureau in January, 1918, Morrill declared that the sum of $255,282.50 had been saved to the people of the state in the recovery of lost and stolen articles and in the identification of criminals. Through the efforts of the bureau in linking suspects with other crimes 70 persons have been entered into the state penitentiaries, charges of which they were accused, saving a sum of $225,000 in trials for taxpayers. In addition to this he has recovered of $19,000 in automobiles and $1252 in jewelry, with the aid of records of the bureau, making a grand total of savings for the state of $285,282.50. Against this he placed the expense of maintaining the bureau at $29,161.50.

FINGERPRINTS FITTED.

On file now at the State bureau, Morrill stated to the delegates, were 32,520 prints of fingerprints, 16,152 of which were secured during the fiscal year ending

KAISER BLAMED FOR BERLIN RIOTS

BERLIN, Aug. 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—The New Berliner Zeitung today publishes excerpts from a lengthy description by Heinrich von Tschammer, former imperial German chancellor, of a telephone conversation he had with the then Emperor William, November 8, 1918. The conversation lasted twenty minutes.

"The Kaiser was very violent and frightfully unaware of the attitude of the troops to him," says the description. "We, soldiers of a military expedition against Berlin, but he refused to listen to my recommendation that he abdicate. Had the general staff told him November 9, as it did November 9, the truth about the army, I have no doubt that the Kaiser would have abdicated the evening of the 9th."

One of the most dangerous points of contact between the rioting workmen and the soldiers was the fact that the Kaiser had not abdicated.

U.S. PLAN FOR LEAGUE WAS NOT PRESSED

go into details, however, because he was not a member of the commission, which drafted the covenant. Asked how expenses of the League were to be paid, the secretary said the league had no authority to "assume" any nation, but would appropriate expenses, and their payment so far as the United States was concerned would be entirely upon the decision of Congress.

Pressed to describe the Bliss letter, Lansing said:

"The president had asked us to communicate our opinions. General Bliss prepared a letter, and showed it to us and we concurred in it."

"Was it in the nature of a protest?" asked Borah.

"No."

Asked why the letter was not available Secretary Lansing said:

"Ask the president. It was sent to him."

The secretary said he could not recall having seen a letter relating to the proposed League of Nations delegates to intimidate China.

Questioned about the Lansing-Ishii agreement the secretary said he would prefer to make a full statement later on that subject, as well as the attitude of the American government toward the 21 demands by Japan upon China and toward China's entrance into the war.

Senator New asked whether China made any appeal to the American delegates about the Shantung matter.

"The Chinese delegates called upon the American delegates and discussed the subject," said Lansing. "I don't call it an appeal as it was a discussion the same as we had with the Japanese delegates."

"Was any effort made by the American delegates to have Japan guarantee to return Shantung to China?" asked Senator New.

"Yes. There was such an effort. And by the word effort I do not mean to imply that it was a failure."

"Do you mean to say it was not a failure?" asked Senator Harding, Ohio.

"I cannot pass upon that as the matter was handled entirely by the president."

Secretary Lansing said "he had reason to believe," there was no secret agreement in effect now among the other allied and associated powers of which the United States had no knowledge. He also said he had been "assured by Mr. Balfour" (the British foreign secretary) that Great Britain favored the open door policy in China.

Physicians Recommend Castoria

YOU know the real human doctors right around in your neighborhood: the doctors made of flesh and blood just like you: the doctors with souls and hearts: those men who are responding to your call in the dead of night as readily as in the broad daylight; they are ready to tell you the good that Fletcher's Castoria has done, is doing and will do, from their experience and their love for children.

Fletcher's Castoria is nothing new. We are not asking you to try an experiment. We just want to impress upon you the importance of buying Fletcher's.

Your physician will tell you this, as he knows there are a number of imitations on the market, and he is particularly interested in the welfare of your baby.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Do the People Know?

Do you know why you are asked to call for Fletcher's Castoria when you want a child's remedy? Why you must insist on Fletcher's?

For years we have been explaining how the popularity of Fletcher's Castoria has brought out innumerable imitations, substitutes and counterfeits.

To protect the babies: to shield the homes and in defense of generations to come we appeal to the better judgment of parents to insist on having Fletcher's Castoria when in need of a child's medicine. And remember above all things that a child's medicine is made for children—a medicine prepared for grown-ups is not interchangeable. A baby's food for a baby. And a baby's medicine is just as essential for the baby.

The Castoria Recipe (it's on every wrapper) has been prepared by the same hands in the same manner for so many years that the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and perfection in the product are synonymous.

SAYS CHINA MAY CAUSE BIG WAR

SAN FRANCISCO NEWS
U.S. PRISONERS ATTEMPT ESCAPE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—Thoughts that China will throw the world into war some time and win back Shantung, as France regained Lorraine, out of the blood of battle, was voiced by Consul General Chu, addressing 400 Chinese here at a dinner in honor of Dr. C. C. Wu, a Chinese delegate to the peace conference.

Shantung is the price of our patriotism," he said, "and will be restored to China in the future as was Alsace-Lorraine to France. We have been awakened by a great nationalistic rapping on our head and that stick is Shantung. We talk, think, eat and dream of Shantung. Nothing else matters but this great question now before us."

Dr. Wu also made an ardent speech which caused some of his hearers to call him the "Patriotic Henry of China." He said:

"Alsace-Lorraine was torn from France in 1871 by the mailed fist of Germany and now she has to pay. Schleswig-Holstein was torn from Denmark by Germany and she is now ordered to return this province to Denmark, which was a neutral, while China, a fighting ally of the allies, is forced to pay an ally the price of her own territory. Is Shantung to be given as a prize or a compensation for the participation of another ally?"

FOUR MEN ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE FROM GUARDS

With only one outbreak and attempt to escape on the way, the guards who brought 120 military prisoners from Fort Leavenworth to Alcatraz, arriving yesterday, though themselves lucky. The prisoners are among the most undesirable of the Leavenworth lot, including the leaders in the recent mutiny there. They include overseas soldiers convicted of murder, deserters in the face of the enemy and conscientious objectors. The escape effort was made soon after the train pulled out of Leavenworth. Four men attempted to jump through windows after kicking out the glass and two others leaped from the train in a small room at the end of a car and wouldn't come out. The restless ones were told that eight men were stationed at advantageous points with orders to shoot in case of emergency, and the restlessness subsided.

RICH WOMEN OF EUROPE GET FURS FROM S. F.

Two hundred thousand dollars in furs now in San Francisco will be sold by the end of next week, and furs from London and Paris will have a large part of them, say fur experts here. The invasion of the fur buyers was accomplished quietly but they are said to represent the insistent million of lady of the European capitals, long deprived of luxury by the war, and who now desire fine furs. In this country furs are the rage and dress trimmings as well as neck and shoulder pieces and New York buyers are active here.

WOMAN ASKS TO GO TO PRISON TO SAVE MAN

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 6.—Despite her urgent pleas that she be arrested and Roy McWhitney of Seattle, held on a Mann act charge, be freed, Mrs. Margaret Worthington Sherrow of Seattle, was at liberty today.

McWhitney is held on a charge of bringing Mrs. Sherrow to Los Angeles for immoral purposes. "I alone am to blame," she sobbed to Deputy United States Marshal Walton. "Please arrest me and let me take the blame. He didn't know I was married. I paid my own fare and came here to be near him. He expected to marry me and I didn't like to tell him I was not divorced."

U. S. IS ACCUSED OF IMPERIALISM

PARIS, Aug. 6.—The charge that the United States is guilty of imperialism under the guise of the Monroe doctrine is printed by the Lausanne Gazette, one of the leading Swiss newspapers.

"The logical consequences of American participation in the league of nations should be the return of liberty to Nicaragua, Santo Domingo and Haiti and the restitution of Colon to Panama," said the newspaper.

"Costa Rica declared war against Germany, but Washington excluded her from the peace conference and deprived her of membership in the league."

"The independence of the Central American republics has become a mere fiction. Mexico is openly threatened with invasion and the magnificent United States army soon may establish a regime there agreeable to New York and Chicago financiers. Undoubtedly American imperialism is less odious than the German variety. It isn't carried out with sabers and machine guns. It acts in the name of the famous Monroe doctrine. It is disguised, friendly protection, yet the Monroe doctrine is like a woman's fur—they are worn according to season. Sometimes the fur is on the inside, sometimes on the outside."

"While the European powers are being warned off, the Yankees are outstretching their claws pretty near everywhere on their continent. Are we not entitled to ask how this policy harmonizes with President Wilson's generous code?"

The official party will include beside General Liggett and Mayor Rolph, with their wives: General Frederick S. Long, acting commander of the Western Division; Col. Mullally; Col. Benjamin Alvord, adjutant general of the department; J. C. Orr, General J. B. McDonald, Gen. C. A. Devol, Gen. William C. Davis, Col. H. C. Haines, Capt. Henry E. ## MOTHERS TO BE

Should Read Mrs. Monahan's Letter Published by Her Permission.

Mitchell, Ind.—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me so much during the time I was looking forward to the coming of my little one that I am recommending it to all expectant mothers. Before taking it some days I suffered with neuralgia, but after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely relieved of neuralgia, I had gained strength and was able to go about and do all my household work. My baby when seven months old weighed 19 pounds and I feel better than I have for a long time. I never had any medicine do me so much good as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Good health during maternity is a most important factor to both mother and child, and many letters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., telling of health restored during this trying period by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

ELECTRICIANS AND RAILWAY AGREE

Striking electrical workers of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal railway are back at work today, following complete acceptance of their demands by the company. The agreement signed yesterday by C. A. Jordan, business agent for the men, and George Harris, general superintendent of the company, foremen are to receive $4.70 in the future as compared with $6 in the past; journeymen linemen and metermen are awarded $8 instead of the $5.50 scale once before the electrical switch maintenance men were organized. The company agrees to deal with the men through the union hereafter.

According to the union men, however, the wage increase, although important, is not the main portion of their victory. Recognition of the electrical workers' union, to which the railway men owe allegiance, is one of the most important features. The company agrees to deal with the men through the union hereafter.

One demand of the men was not accepted in the final agreement. This related to home ownership. The union negotiator wanted two hours' pay daily, whether the workers were called upon by the company or not. This demand was refused, it is understood, the union confederates insist on its acceptance. Through the settlement, Local Union No. 233, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, is recognized as the negotiating body in all union matters.

WIFE TAKES BABY AND DISAPPEARS A little mountainside home on Tully Road, Modesto, is destitute today. A forlorn breeze sweeps the deserted farmyard. And there are no gleeful cries of a flaxen-haired two-year old lot, nor the soft singing of the office.

The home is bare. Somewhere in Oakland the mother and child are hidden away. Earl Smith, husband and father, came to Oakland and upped to do all in their power to reunite the happy family.

He can assign no reason for his family deserting him so suddenly. Smith came home late Saturday night. His wife and child were gone. He investigated and found they had bought tickets to Oakland. They were both very fond of Santa Cruz and he believes they might have gone there.

Mrs. Smith is 20 years old. She has light brown hair, blue eyes, light complexion. She wore a black skirt with white stripes and white buttons. Olga Homie Smith, the child, is named by long, beautiful tresses of black hair.

Each family was shocked—but forgiveness was soon forthcoming. The bride's parents thought she was studying at finishing school, and did not miss her. The young couple have been engaged for some time, but their parents anticipated making no wedding plans for two years at the earliest.

The bride is a granddaughter of the late Robert Sudden, pioneer founder of the firm of Sudden and Christensen, a big factor in lumber and shipping. Blair's father is a prominent California street broker.

Elope When Early Marriage Opposed SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—Paternal disapproval of an early marriage meant nothing to Katherine Gertrude Sudden, 18, and Harry Rubio Blair Jr., both members of the local high school. Yesterday they notified their parents of their elopement to Modesto and their marriage there Saturday by a justice of the peace.

GIRL BATTLES WITH MOUNTAIN LION IN IDAHO

HAILEY, Idaho, Aug. 6.—Letha Burrell, 15, while herding cattle on the outskirts of town, was maimed by a mountain lion and after a struggle in which the girl tried to choke the animal, she was found unconscious, her arms, back and chest badly lacerated. The lion jumped upon her back while she was in a sitting posture, tearing her clothing into shreds and a shoe which was torn from her foot could not be found. Citizens at once organized to hunt the lion, which has been seen in the vicinity of the town for a month. The girl will recover.

UNDUE VIOLENCE USED, IS CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—A warrant for the arrest of H. H. Dolley, former department of justice operative and chief assistant to Don Rathbun, special agent in charge during 1912, and who is now attached to the Army Intelligence bureau at Camp Kearny, was issued by Police Judge Mathew Brady yesterday on the complaint of Attorney Daniel O'Connell on charges that Dolley "manhandled" him when O'Connell was placed under arrest on a charge of violating the espionage act.

O'Connell was convicted by a jury and sentenced by President Judge William C. Van Fleet to seven years in McNeil Island penitentiary for incorporating an organization known as "The American Patriots" that had for its object, according to the charge, to "do away with" President Woodrow Wilson.

On an appeal to the circuit court, O'Connell was released on bail of $25,000. The case is similar to that of Eugene Debs, socialist party leader, now serving a ten-year term at Mountville, West Virginia. The supreme court in that case affirmed the verdict of the federal court.

O'Connell said this morning that he expected a decision in his case early next month.

There Is No Mileage Limit in the United States Tire Guarantee

The unlimited mileage guarantee, on which 'Royal Cord' Tires have been sold since their introduction four years ago, proved so popular, that it was extended to cover the remaining tires in the line—'Nobby', 'Chain', 'Usco' and 'Plain' fabric passenger tires, and also 'Nobby Cord' pneumatic and solid tires for trucks.

All United States Tires are guaranteed to be free from imperfections in material and workmanship during their entire life—regardless of mileage run. Their performance is not limited to any specific mileage.

United States Tires are sold purely on a quality basis—as the longest mileage tires that the present art of tire manufacture makes possible.

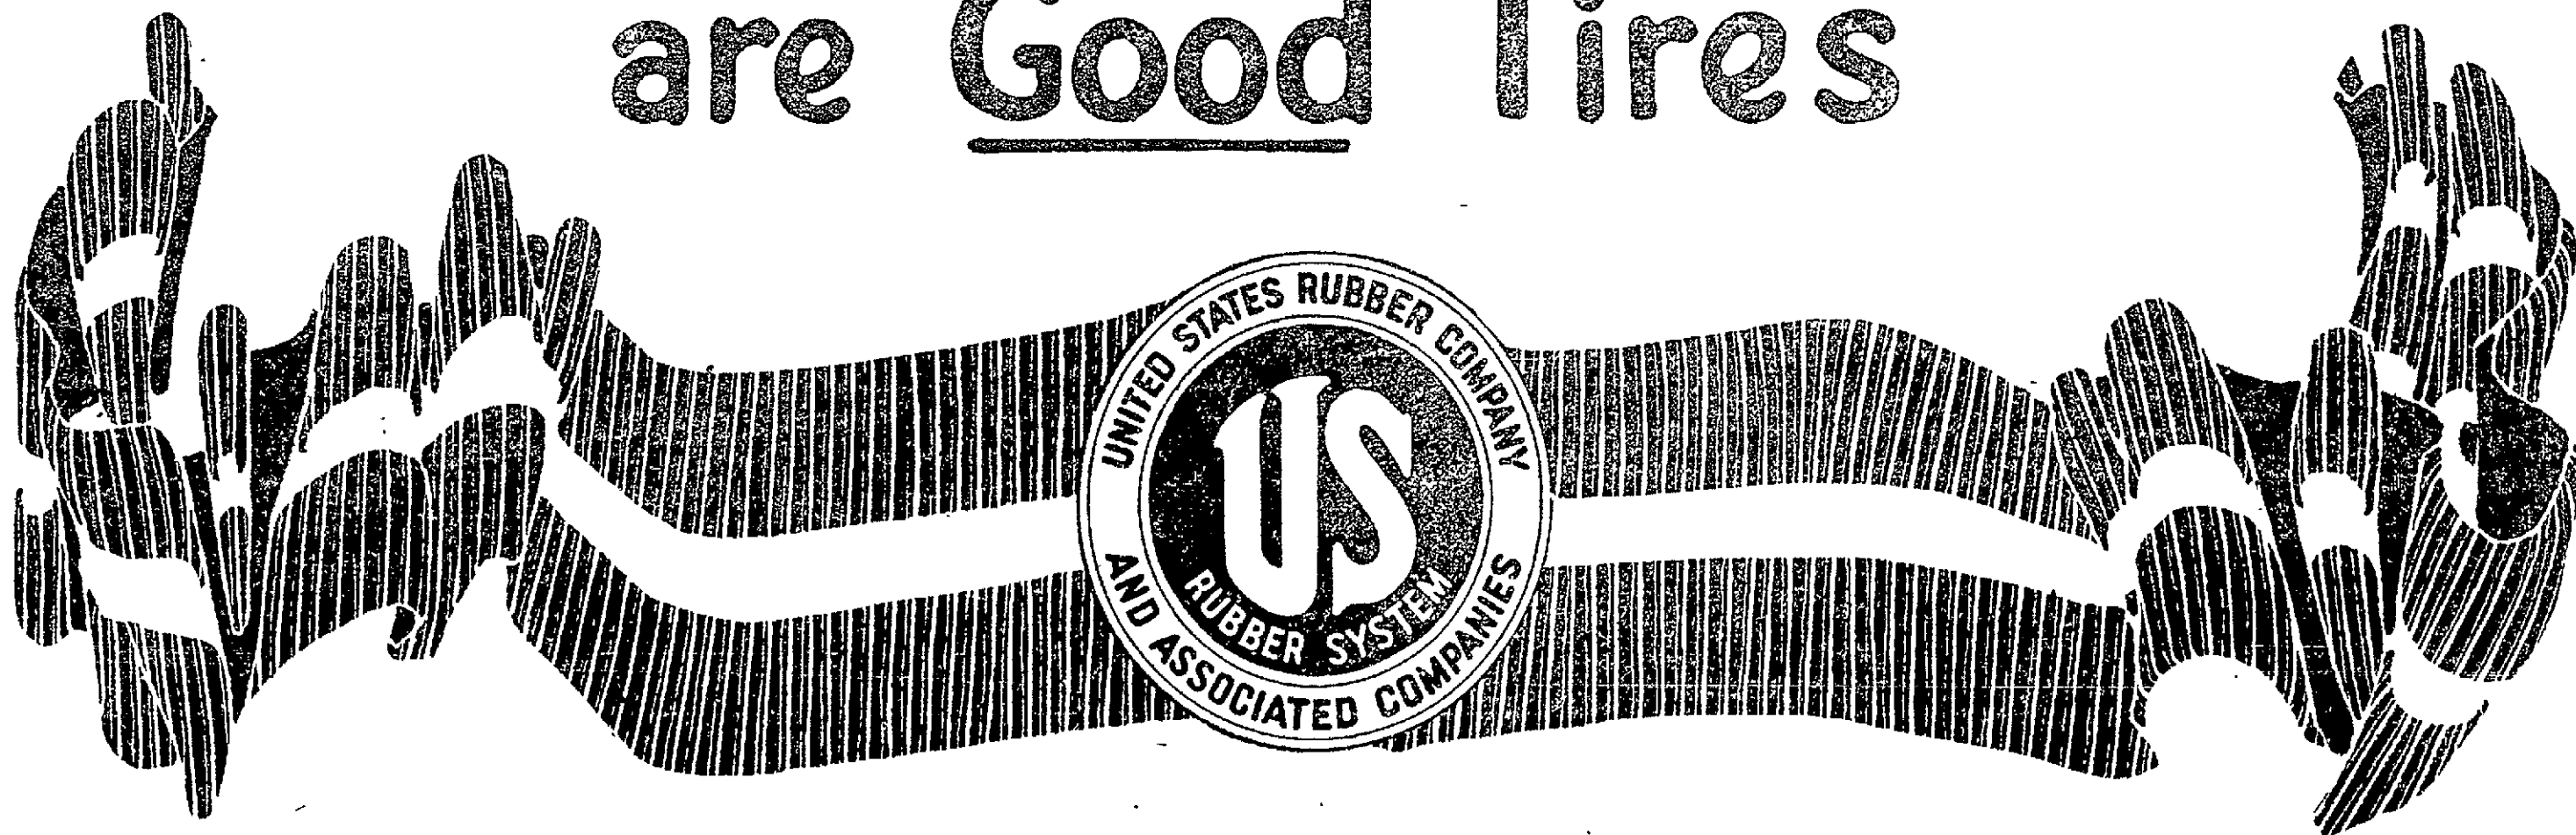

That is why, even with its constantly enlarging capacity, the United States Tire Company is unable to keep pace with the growing demand for its tires.

Compared to the millions of United States Tires sold so few are returned for adjustment that the adjustment problem insofar as it concerns users of United States Tires, has become one of minor importance.

If, at any time during its life, any United States Tire proves defective, its owner is entitled to a fair and square adjustment—an adjustment that is backed by the good faith of the oldest and largest rubber manufacturing company in the world.

Painting Lawyer Is Also Witness Court Battle Has Mirthful Effect

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—Interest in the suit of Mrs. Lovina Hotelling against the late Fred Hotelling, a wealthy company valued at $1,000,000 alleged to have been appropriated by her son Richard, focused in the third day of trial before Superior Judge John Hunt on the testimony of Gavin McNab, who occupies the dual position of director of the Hotelling estate company and chief counsel for the aged plaintiff and her son, the late Fred Hotelling. Repeated threats by Judge Hunt to clear the crowded courtroom for the manifestations of mirth occasioned by the display of wit before Attorney McNab, who was being grossly examined, and Attorney Peter Dunne, chief counsel for "Dick" Hotelling, had little effect upon the audience. During the day the defendant also possessed of a comical character which might be "likened to that of Dr. Jeckyl and Mr. Hyde," Attorney McNab testified as to certain conversations with the defendant in which McNab sought to have the Sleepy Hollow ranch in Marin county re-declared to the Hotelling estate after it is alleged, it was acquired by the defendant through the use of a deed which he had promised his mother would not be recorded.

URGED TO DEED IT BACK.
"I told Dick," McNab said, "that if you own the Sleepy Hollow property as you claim, you should pay $100,000 of the funds of the Hotelling estate to improve that property. Either deed it back or pay back to the estate this $100,000 you have withdrawn and the defendant refused. And according to the witness the defendant replied: 'It does look bad.'"

Oppose Government Ownership C. of C. Members State Reasons

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—Business men of the country as represented in the Chamber of Commerce of the United States favor private ownership of the railroads.

Based on the referendum of the chambers 670,000 members, this announcement was made following publication of the demands of organized labor for elimination of private capital from railroad ownership and operation.

Announcement of the vote of 50 per cent of the business men against government ownership was accompanied by the following explanation of the reasons for the decision:

1. Under government ownership the development of railroad facilities would depend upon congressional appropriations which would prevent the operation of the transportation needs of the country. Appropriation would not be made in the amount and at the time needed to insure adequate development of the railroads. Political considerations might also control the amount of appropriations and the date for which they were made.

2. To acquire the railroads the government would have to pledge its credit for a loan to twenty millions of dollars at a time when other large financial investments are being made. It would be difficult for the government to dispose of the securities required to purchase the railroads, and it would be necessary for the government to secure from the treasury a loan of $2,000,000,000 of new capital each year. If the government were to assume the burden of financing the railroads at the present time, it would be a heavy burden, its interest would probably be as high as, if not higher, than the rate at which corporations could secure capital.

3. Government operation is seldom, if ever, as efficient as corporate management. Competition, the incentive to efficiency and progress in private enterprise, is absent from the government administration of affairs. Inefficient initiative, less bureaucratic methods are more characteristic, and the services rendered are less progressively efficient.

POLITICS WOULD CREEP IN.

4. While the government would annually select officials and employees by means of efficiency tests, political influences would almost certainly be given weight in selecting men for official positions.

5. The government adopted the policy of fixing low rates and rates with the intention that any resulting deficit from operations should be paid as an increased burden of taxes upon the general public, rates and fares would be higher under government than under private operation.

Under government operation expenses for the railroads would be increased by the government, if a deficit is to be avoided, must be higher than those which it would be necessary to permit railroad corporations to incur.

6. The political action of government ownership and operation of railroads in the United States might be serious. There are now about 2,000,000 employees of the government. The addition to the payroll of 2,000,000 railroad employees, the majority of whom are voters, would constitute a force of about 2,500,000 government employees. It would be a serious matter for the government to control the police of the government, the police of the government, the police of the government.

7. The government would have to assume the burden of financing the railroads at the present time, it would be a heavy burden, its interest would probably be as high as, if not higher, than the rate at which corporations could secure capital.

8. Government operation is seldom, if ever, as efficient as corporate management. ## GOSSIPS ARE HARMLESS, IS EXPERT'S VIEW

BERKELEY, Aug. 6.—Score one for the feminine gossip!

Never will her fair form darken prison doors. She may say a dozen lot but it's harmless.

At least so says Dr. Jau Don Ball, a clinical psychologist who was one of the morning's speakers at the fifth annual convention of the International Association for Identification, which opened today at the Hotel Statler.

Women of the gossip type never develop dementia precox, declares Dr. Ball. And dementia precox is the form of insanity to which present-day criminologists lay the bulk of their case.

MODERATE NAUGHTINESS.

Like the gossip woman neither does the moderately "naughty" boy develop the way to iron bars and prison cells with his practice. A certain amount of "useful naughtiness," Dr. Ball holds essential to the well-being of a normal child.

Here are four types which develop dementia precox most frequently as outlined by Dr. Ball today to the finger-print experts:

1. The "shut-in," a seclusive type who keeps to himself and has but one thought for company—mostly males.

2. The "sensitive, unstable, excitable, obstinate type," mostly women.

3. The "lazy, unsteady, shiftless, mischievous type—mostly boys in youth and tramps in after life.

4. The "good-natured, friendly, but without a certain amount of 'useful naughtiness.'"

OCULTS EARLY IN LIFE.

Dementia precox, Dr. Ball declares, occurs most frequently between the ages of 15 and 30 years. In this class he declared could be placed a great many juvenile delinquents, "pathological liars," petty thieves, tramps and prostitutes.

A strong plea for recognition of dangerous types of "sane" persons was made by Dr. Ball to the assembled criminologists.

"Find these types early and you will avoid serious consequences later on," was his warning in drawing attention to the case of Roger Sprague, assailant of University of California professors whom he classed as a dangerous type of person who should have been taken under the arm of the law before he was allowed to attempt murder. In this instance he urged the need of a psychopathic hospital to care for such cases.

FEDERAL TAX ON ICE CREAM STILL IN EFFECT

SAN JOSE, Aug. 6.—As a result of a mistaken impression on the part of the public that the federal tax on ice cream had been repealed, local ice cream manufacturers were compelled to issue an explanatory statement today.

They declared that the bill to repeal the tax on ice cream had only passed the house of representatives and that to become effective it must pass the senate and then be signed by the President.

As the senate is not in session now they did not look for repeal of the ice cream tax before October 1 and possibly not before the first of the year.

LIVING COSTS CUT BY FRENCH ACTION

PARIS, Aug. 6.—The first official unorganized campaign to fight the high cost of living in Paris has resulted in price cuts varying from 10 to 50 per cent. It was claimed today by leaders of the movement.

Consumers' leagues were formed in various parts of the city and "patrol committees" were sent out to inspect the price tickets of all commodities.

The movement is spreading and the syndicates in provincial towns are taking measures of their own to reduce the cost of foodstuffs.

The "patrol committees" in Paris are assisting the police to enforce the laws compelling shopkeepers to post a list of prices, but the work has been carried out in orderly fashion without any disturbances.

The committee men note the lowest prices for each commodity in a given section and then "peacefully persuade" shopkeepers who have been selling at higher prices to cut their figures.

The trades unions are taking a leading part in the campaign.

In this instance he urged the need of a psychopathic hospital to care for such cases.

The railroad also answered an inquiry from the city regarding the installation of an auto ferry service between San Francisco and Alameda pier, involving the construction of a roadway from Alameda pier to Webster street over the railroad's right-of-way. The company holds that the cost of building the roadway is excessive and that the company does not desire to undertake the work.

ONE THING AT A TIME.

NEWARK, N. J.—Either drive a car or hug the girl, but do not both at once, declared Commissioner Dill after revoking the motor license of Ralph Holman. Holman's car was wrecked while attempting both.

Whether he will accept a second challenge was asked yesterday by Rev. Edward R. Payne, retired minister of Berkeley. Dr. Barrows declared he did not know the offer to discuss the question of Bolshevism not having formally reached him as yet.

Without waiting for a written challenge from the Socialist local of Berkeley, which he declared he would demand before considering a second debate, Dr. Barrows has sent a lengthy letter to Mrs. Elvina Beals in which he asks explicit information as to the stand of the Socialists on Bolshevism.

An answer, Mrs. Beals declared today, was being prepared and would probably be in Dr. Barrows' hands tomorrow. She refused to say just what attitude would be taken by the local, stating that the drafting of the communication was in the hands of a special committee.

"We have issued no formal challenge to Dr. Barrows," declared Mrs. Beals today. "We were drafting one in writing when his letter came. We are not sure now that a challenge will be sent."

In his letter to Mrs. Beals Dr. Barrows demands "explicit and positive assurances from the Berkeley Socialists that they do not stand for the things which Socialists in the audience of last Tuesday night apparently stood for."

"Unless the Socialists assure me that they do not propose to tolerate people of this kind in the ranks of Berkeley Socialism, I will have no further debate with them," says the educator.

Whether he will accept a second challenge was asked yesterday by Rev. Edward R. Payne, retired minister of Berkeley. Dr. Barrows declared he did not know the offer to discuss the question of Bolshevism not having formally reached him as yet.

Without waiting for a written challenge from the Socialist local of Berkeley, which he declared he would demand before considering a second debate, Dr. Barrows has sent a lengthy letter to Mrs. Elvina Beals in which he asks explicit information as to the stand of the Socialists on Bolshevism.

An answer, Mrs. Beals declared today, was being prepared and would probably be in Dr. Barrows' hands tomorrow. She refused to say just what attitude would be taken by the local, stating that the drafting of the communication was in the hands of a special committee.

"We have issued no formal challenge to Dr. Barrows," declared Mrs. Beals today. "We were drafting one in writing when his letter came. We are not sure now that a challenge will be sent."

In his letter to Mrs. Beals Dr. Barrows demands "explicit and positive assurances from the Berkeley Socialists that they do not stand for the things which Socialists in the audience of last Tuesday night apparently stood for."

"Unless the Socialists assure me that they do not propose to tolerate people of this kind in the ranks of Berkeley Socialism, I will have no further debate with them," says the educator.

MOLE CLAIMED BY VIRTUE OF SPANISH GRANT

ALAMEDA, Aug. 6.—E. B. Leavitt, lease agent of the Southern Pacific Company, has notified the city council through City Manager C. B. Leavitt, that the railroad company relies on its title to Alameda mole on the old Spanish grant and not on franchise privileges granted by the city of Alameda; and that the city had no authority to issue such privileges in a railroad franchise over lands the city did not then own.

Several other railroad matters were before the council last night. The city attorney recently advised that the city owned the mole tract by reason of the tract being state land when the railroad franchise was granted and therefore not within the province of the city to turn over to the railroad. Later when the title was given to the city by the state, the city attorney holds, the city came into ownership of the mole tract. Several years ago a former city council demanded rent from the Southern Pacific on this same contention but the rent money was not paid and no effort was made by the city to enforce payment.

Several other railroad matters were before the council last night. The company sent word that its temporary pole line on west Lincoln avenue would be removed at once, work of removal to start within ten days.

The council recently ordered the cross-town cars, southbound from Oakland to come to a stop at the north side of Central and Eighth to avoid possibility of accident when the car swung around a curve into Central avenue. The railroad countered last night with a letter saying that orders had been issued to slow down at the curve to six miles an hour. The council was not satisfied and renewed its demand that the cars come to a full stop.

The railroad also answered an inquiry from the city regarding the installation of an auto ferry service between San Francisco and Alameda pier, involving the construction of a roadway from Alameda pier to Webster street over the railroad's right-of-way. The company holds that the cost of building the roadway is excessive and that the company does not desire to undertake the work.

News of the AIRMEN

SEVEN KILLED WHEN POLES
SHOOT DOWN GERMAN PLANE

BERLIN, Aug. 6.—(By The Associated Press)—A special dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Rybnik, Upper Silesia, says a large German airplane, belonging to a German airship works left during a flight, killing all seven of the occupants, including the pilot.

The accident occurred near Rathen. The airplane carried 3,000,000 rubles in Ukrainian money and a sack of Russian money. Former Finance Minister Witkowsky of the West Ukraine republic was a passenger.

The plane was on its first trip. Its destination was Podol, but a landing had been planned on the Galician side of the border near Tarnopol.

An official announcement says the airplane was shot down by Polish border troops. The crash occurred while crossing the Polish frontier.

ATLANTIC-PACIFIC
AIR FLIGHT ENDS.

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 6.—Lieutenant Locatelli, an Italian aviator, who last week flew from Buenos Aires to Valparaiso, yesterday made a non-stop flight from Santiago, Chile, to this city. The time of the flight was seven hours and ten minutes. Today's air voyage completed the aviator's round trip from the Atlantic to the Pacific and over the Andes mountains.

BARROWS ASKS SOCIALISTS TO DEFINE STAND

BERKELEY, Aug. 6.—While refusing to accept a challenge to Berkeley Socialists until they define their position, Dr. David P. Barrows, professor of political science at the University of California, will offer further denunciation of Bolshevism in a lecture announced for tomorrow evening in Wheeler Auditorium under the auspices of the university summer session. His subject will be "The Soviet Form of Government and Bolshevism."

DEMOCRATS, IN HOT REVOLT, OVER BIG PLUM

Rejection of Leaders' Recommendation for Census Director Inspires Talk of Bolt of Members from the Party

Democratic leaders in Alameda county are in hot revolt and threaten to follow the banner of Hiram Johnson instead of the colors of the Wilson party. James C. Walsh, secretary of the county Democratic Central committee, declared today.

Choice announced yesterday of C.
L. Donohue as director of the census for the Eastbay was the last straw, Walsh asserted.

"Just say for me that the Democratic party did not endorse Donohue," averred Walsh. "The county central committee did not endorse him. We endorsed Henry Harwood, secretary of the county assessor and a man who has helped to keep the democratic central committee alive in this county for twenty years."

Harwood is well-posted on statistics. He would make an excellent man for the choice. In addition to the endorsement of the central committee, W. E. Bunker, president of the Jefferson club, asked Senator Phelan to recommend Harwood. Phelan has seen fit to do otherwise.

"Let me tell you there are going to be a lot of Democrats who will vote for Hiram Johnson. The charge that there will be no Democratic party in the next campaign but only Wilson party seems likely to be true."

DONOHUE REPORTED RICH.
Donohue, the new census director, is secretary of the Apartment House Owners' Association of Oakland and it is charged that he is a man of means. He resides at Twenty-first and Harrison streets.

"Donohue is so wealthy that his only purpose in going after the job is for the money," said Walsh. "He is not a member of the central committee but I guess that he was helped by the fact that his wife was a member of the Democratic Women's League."

Other Democrats recalled that President Wilson named Donohue postmaster of Oakland soon after Wilson first assumed office but the Senate did not confirm him.

Donohue will be director of the census for the entire 6th Congressional district, including all of Alameda county.

MENTAL STATE OF SPRAGUE IS STATE PUZZLE

Chief Vollmer and Prosecutor Decoto Disagree Over What Should Be Done With Prisoner in Receiving Hospital

Whether Roger Sprague, University of California instructor in chemistry, who ran amuck with a loaded revolver Monday afternoon and came near snuffing out the lives of three persons is a "constitutional psychopathic inferior" suffering with paranoia and entitled to treatment in a state hospital, or a dangerous criminal entitled to be tried and punished, is a matter of controversy between Chief of Police August Vollmer and Dr. Jau Donohue, district attorney, on one side and District Attorney Ezra W. Decoto on the other. Sprague is under observation by members of the Oakland detention hospital staff, who will determine what is to be done with him.

Decoto takes the position that the man committed a criminal act and it is necessary to prove by physicians that he is irresponsible before the district attorney's office can regard him as other than a criminal, while Vollmer says he inherited the taint of insanity and that he has always been peculiar. Dr. Donohue conducted an examination of the subject shortly after the shooting and pronounced him a paranoiac, a type of insane person who believes he is the victim of deliberate persecution.

Sprague went to the chemistry department and demanded $5000 of Professor O'Neill. When the professor tried to run away from him, Sprague opened fire, the bullet striking a glancing blow over his eye.
Professor Hildebrand went to his associate's assistance and was shot through the back of the neck. Then Sprague hunted out Mrs. Cheney, employment secretary, and shot at her. Sprague had been dismissed from his position and was without funds. It is said he believed he was being deliberately driven to privation.

"INSANE" EDUCATOR.
"I have known the prisoner for thirty years," said Chief Vollmer yesterday. "He has always appeared mentally deficient, even during his

Hundreds of people yesterday inspected the places where the shooting occurred and the affair is the general topic of conversation at the university.

DECOTO DEMANDS PROOF.
Sprague told District Attorney Decoto that he had not intended to shoot O'Neill, that his purpose was to force O'Neill to pay him $5000; that he had discharged his revolver in the excitement; that after he had once started shooting he did not know what he was doing.

Decoto said:
"I am not an alienist and am not prepared to say whether Sprague is sane or otherwise, although to me he appeared sane. But if he is sane I am not going to permit him to be charged on a warrant charging insanity, and certainly if he is insane I should not desire him charged as an offender in full possession of his normal faculties."

Commissioners Blamed by Petersen Says Council Set Lottery Policy

"I had good reasons to believe that Dr. Jackson, the commissioner of health and safety, was issuing orders to certain Chinese lotteries to open."

This charge by Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petersen, who was chief of police under Jackson's administration, came at the height of a tobacco-like hearing on allegations made by Philip Kelley, newspaperman, against Petersen. As a result of this and other statements three commissioners who held office at the time he was called to testify tomorrow at the resumption of the case. W. J. Baccus, still a commissioner, and former Commissioners
F. E. Jackson and Harry F. Anderson will be summoned.

Clashes between Captain Petersen and City Attorney H. L. Hagan marked the session yesterday afternoon in the office of F. F. Morse, commissioner of health and safety.
Several times the commissioner stopped a verbal tirade when Hagan, persisting in a technical cross-examination, asked the police officer what he could not do for him if he could not understand the English language.

PETERSEN DENIES CHARGE.
Petersen was called to answer a charge that when chief of police he called his staff together on October 15, 1918, and issued orders that only seventeen lotteries were to be permitted to run in the city of Oakland.
Petersen's denial of this charge was upheld by the testimony of members of the police force; several of them testified that Petersen told them they were not to molest the lotteries then running but no new ones were to be allowed to open, and that those then open were to be raided periodically to provide revenue for the city.

Petersen admitted that he held meetings at which he told the policemen no new lotteries were to be opened and that those then open were to be "raided" rigorously and retarded. He declared that the raiding scheme was adopted after a conference with Commissioners F. F.
Morse, Harry F. Anderson and William J. Baccus, composing the budget committee.

RAISE $50,000 BY RAIDING.
"They asked me how much could be raised from gambling fines," said Petersen. "I told them that it depended on the policy, but that by raising $50,000 might be realized. I said I didn't advise it, but it could be done."

"I gave the officers to understand that this was the situation. We started raiding. Then I found out that somebody was giving orders to other Chinese to open. It looked that way to me. They were opening in the residence district and we couldn't keep them under control.
After two and a half months I de-

BOMB SUSPECT PAIR TRAILED OVER BORDER

Men Believed to Have Dynamited Oscar Lawler Trailed Into Lower Cal.; New Evidence; Victims Getting Better

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 6.—Stealing an automobile at Calipatria, Imperial county, the Oscar Lawler dynamite suspects today made a deperate break to escape capture by dashing toward the Mexican border, according to reports received by the deputies who are in pursuit.

Armed with revolvers and sawed off shotguns in preparation for a gun battle to death if necessary, the Los Angeles deputy sheriffs picked up the trail of the suspects at Calipatria during the night and reported to the sheriff's office today that they had gained several miles on the fugitives.

As soon as the officers learned the definite direction of the suspects' flight, word was flashed to the United States guards at the border and the net spread to catch the men who were thought to be dynamite suspects. Orders to shoot to kill if the suspects resisted arrest were sent to the border guards and to the deputy sheriffs who are hot on the trail of the dynamiters.

In the meantime police continue investigation locally.
Late developments include: Discovery that a metal case apparently exactly the same as the one which contained the explosives set at the Lawler home, was made by William Peck, a Pomona machinist, for an unidentified man about two weeks ago. Peck said the man told him it was "to keep chemicals in."

Chief of Police Home questioned Mrs. Maud Kaffiz, principal in the recent Kaffiz will contest action, in which Lawler was an attorney.
Mrs. Kaffiz said she visited Chief Home voluntarily as she wanted to do all possible to bring Lawler's assailants to justice.

At the hospital early today reports were that Lawler had passed a comparatively restful night, had been taking nourishment, was in good spirits and the outlook is "hopeful." Mrs. Lawler's condition is growing better.

Richmond Fans See Good Game When Elks Win

The best crowd of the season was out to the Richmond ball park to witness the Richmond Elks add another win to their long string by defeating the Mare Island Marines by a score of 6 to 3, and also to see Ad. Machold get off to a winning start as a hurler for the Elks. Machold held the Marines to six hits, doing his best hurling after the fourth inning, when the Marines made their last two of their runs.

The Marines got off to a one-run lead in the first, but the Elks came back and made two on three hits off of Schultze, who chuckled for the Marines. Two more hits in the second gave them another run. The Elks took the lead in the fifth with one run and added their final tally in the seventh. Machold was a bit wild, but showed that he will win many a game with the Elks playing to their usual form behind him. There is a report that Babe Hollis has accepted a job as leamer and that he will pitch for that team.

Machold fanned eight of the Marines, but the soldier boys were able to put up a game with the Elks that was as good as any played at the Richmond lot this year. Machold also handled six assists. Chicken Hawks and Ralph Croll led in the hitting for the Elks.

Next Sunday at Richmond the Elks will meet the St. Dominics, who gave them such a tough battle a couple of Sundays ago, and also put up a good game with the Shipfitters last Sunday. The score:

PERCY AND FERDIE—This Is a Lonesome Town in August - By H. A. MacGILL

Wilbur Taylor of Alameda Is First Entry Received For Tribune Marathon

The first entry for The TRIBUNE Merritt Marathon was received on Monday when Wilbur Taylor the veteran Alameda high school runner sent in his blank for the fourth successive year. Taylor is an enthusiastic cross country runner and has always made a creditable showing in every event in which he participated. He says that once again the Alameda high school boys will go after the prize for having the largest number of starters from any one organization. The Alameda boys are a bunch and each year finds them trying harder than ever. The team will enter under the colors of the Acon Club of the Alameda high school.

Philip Lopez, the local runner, has signified his intention of trying out for first honors again. He has been well up to the front each time.

O. C. BOYS PREPARING.

Frank Foster, the popular coach of the Olympic Club and Willie von Ballaus, the club's champion runner, both were enthusiastic when informed that the race would be run once again. "Me for The TRIBUNE Merritt Marathon," says Foster. "It is the one great event that I put my best efforts in and I guarantee you that I shall again put over a winner. Just who it will be I am not prepared to state at the present moment, but you just watch my boys cop off that prize." Foster is a modest fellow and never has much to say about his men but when he does speak you can gamble on what he says. Years ago when the Olympic Club had its great track out near Golden Gate Foster was the greatest all-around athlete on the coast and many a big man found himself left behind by the fair headed Olympian. Since his retirement as coach of the O. C. Foster has developed some speedy runners, in which he was ably assisted by Trainer Willie. The club team is now minus the services of the great Millard and Harry Ludwig, last year's winner, but it still has quite a field to select from.

Johnny Kilbane Wants To Be Councilman
CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 6.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, today announced his candidacy for election as councilman here. Kilbane was said to have the support of the Democratic executive committee. Johnny's popularity was expected to land him in office.

Judson Team Wins Ten Straight Games
The fast Judson ball team made it ten straight wins when it took the 15-line transfer team into camp by the score of 18 to 2. The game was featured by the heavy hitting of the Judson boys, who knocked Oakes O'Connor's shots to all corners of the lot. Mullany, playing left field, played a bang-up game, besides hitting a couple on the nose. Speed Strong also fielded nicely besides hitting four out of four. Conalley at short handled eleven chances without an error. The Judson ball club is having its home grounds completed and expect to have them ready by a week from Sunday, and then demand the fastest scums around the bay.

If you saw it in The TRIBUNE, tell them so. Thank you.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Colonels Rupert and Huston, owners of the New York American League club, promised today to attend to the business of getting an injunction against Ben Johnson so Carl May's can again go to work. The absence of application to the federal court yesterday, it was expected, was due to the fact that attorneys for the club had not gathered all the necessary information.

SHIP SUBSIDIES URGED TO REGAIN SEA PRESTIGE

Government Should Provide Funds to Build Ships and Keep Them Afloat, Says Chamber of Commerce Head

If the United States is to take its proper place in the matter of sea commerce it must carry its own goods and supplies in its own ships to its own customers, according to Homer L. Ferguson, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, who gave a talk at the luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce in the Hotel Oakland yesterday on "Merchant Marine and Foreign Trade."

The speaker advocated a high standard of wages and a high standard of living for American workmen and expressed the belief that the solution of various vexatious problems with which this country is confronted would have to be solved along different lines from those in European countries, as conditions are very different overseas.

"The government should subsidize the shipbuilding industry, that owners of vessels in this country who pay high wages and get good help can compete with cheap foreign laborers," said Ferguson. In part, he said:

"When I last visited Oakland twelve years ago there was one small ship repair shop here. Now I find a great transformation has taken place. A vast ship-building industry has sprung up in this community and you are turning out some fine vessels."

"We tried in this country for many years to have a merchant marine without ships. That was all right in times of peace, but when the war came upon us we were left high and dry."

"Sea transportation is today our greatest problem. During the war we paid a great price for lack of preparedness in many directions, not the least of which was our economy of ships. Wages and the cost of all materials have inevitably been forced up. These costs had of necessity to go up during the war, but we are now returning to the pursuit of peace. Wages are high and I understand they may go higher—from $6.40 to $8 a day probably."

"It is incumbent upon us to build up a big merchant marine and in doing this shipbuilders are forced to compete with ships built in other countries where the wages of the men who are employed in shipyards are from 50 cents to $1 a day."

"The export trade of this country has grown until it amounts to $7,000,000,000 annually. We produce from 25 to 50 per cent more than we can possibly use and unless we have the necessary ships to handle this business we are going to see a period of great depression in the United States."

"It is vitally necessary that we prepare to expand our foreign trade. It is incumbent upon us as a people to do all in our power to supply European countries with what they need and to work in every way for the restoration of confidence throughout the world."

"Increased production makes for greater prosperity and brings contentment to the people. It is our duty to put into the hands of the common people those things which were once considered luxuries, but which have become actual necessities. Industry should be speeded up that all who want work can find it. The standard of wages should be kept high. With good wages the working man is enabled to enjoy more comforts of life.

"We should build American ships with American money, American material and American workmen, and operate them along American lines if we expect to regain our sea prestige of a hundred years ago."

"Some of you were perhaps not aware of the fact that President Wilson went to Europe on a vessel American in name only. The George Washington is a German built vessel from Kiel to deck. If we cannot send our nation's chief executive to Europe in an American built vessel we should close up shop and go out of business."

"WANTS U. S. MONEY. The government should loan money to build American ships. Our people should be able to get cheap money to handle this great problem of providing an adequate merchant marine. Had we invested $100,000,000 in building up a merchant marine prior to the war we would have saved $1,000,000,000 during the war. A merchant fleet is an indispensable auxiliary of the navy in times of peace and in times of war."

"Fred N. Shepherd, manager of the field division of that body, spoke on 'The United States Chamber of Commerce,' which he said had been a most potent factor in advising with government officials on vital questions that pertained to the winning of the war."

The speaker said that up to seven years ago, when the United States Chamber of Commerce was organized, business men in all parts of the country realized that they had no competent representative body to which they could take their problems for solution, but that with the rapid growth of the organization, which comprises some of the ablest business men in this country, hundreds of allied and kindred industries are now thoroughly represented."

"TRANSPORTATION PROBLEMS. We now have in Washington machinery in operation that is helping to solve some of the greatest problems of the day. Operation of the railroads fundamentally affects all lines of industry and it is highly important that the transportation facilities of the country be operated with the greatest efficiency, which means their speedy return to their owners."

"The United States Chamber of Commerce has a railroad committee comprising railroad men and representatives of various other industries. Since December 12 last this committee has held twenty-two conferences and heard all sides of ten fundamental problems incidental to reconstruction work, and it is the unanimous opinion of the committee that the railroads of the country should be restored to their owners as quickly as possible."

"Mr. Smith of Georgia, who is with us today, has given this question the deepest thought, and he said recently: 'If public ownership in this country is not dead it is certainly entered upon a long sleep.'"

"It was found necessary during the war to appoint a service committee to make a careful survey of the country's industries and plants and organize industry in a way that would meet the approval of the government on the one hand and conserve the interests of the owners and operators on the other."

"It was found at the beginning of the war that the non-war demand for steel was 24,000,000 tons and that there were only 17,000,000 tons. During the survey of the industry the fact was developed that 10 kinds of refrigerators of various sizes and shapes were being manufactured. This number was cut to eleven kinds, effecting a saving in steel for government use to the extent of 16,000 tons. There were 1500 different makes of wagon wheels and the number was cut to 49 with another big saving of steel. This holds true in regard to other industry in which steel is used."

"WOMEN STEEL CAGES. 'Cages,' it would seem, have little to do with the steel industry, but nevertheless the steel developed the fact that the women of the United States were carrying about 20,000 tons of steel in their corsets. By an elimination process we saved 15,000 more tons of steel that formerly were used in making corsets."

"The United States Chamber of Commerce is fast becoming one of the greatest forces of democracy in this country. The working men of the country are well organized and are able to get results. Business men should be so organized that they may make their voice heard at Washington. It is vitally necessary that we stem this Bolshevick tide. Our organization stands for individuality. We feel that the government should not enter any enterprise that can be adequately handled by private concerns. It is essential that we have a comprehensive plan of transportation expansion."

"Speaking on the 'Coordination of Industries,' Clarence A. Howard, president of the Commonwealth Steel Company of St. Louis, said that during the war conflicting interests forgot their differences and joined hands to win victory. 'If we continue to carry out this plan of coordination we shall achieve a great peace victory,' said the speaker. Continuing Howard said:

"The United States Chamber of Commerce is the most democratic organization with which I have been identified. The men who comprise that body are endeavoring to render a service to their country for their country's good. There is no spirit of selfishness in this work."

"PLAN BUSINESS MEMORIAL. 'Realizing that the real foundation of all things is the home, the United States Chamber of Commerce has purchased a large lot opposite the White House and will erect upon it a magnificent building which will be a memorial to business in this country. The structure will be in strict keeping with the government buildings in Washington and will be a home that you will be pleased to visit when you come to the nation's capital."

"I was once asked what I considered the foundation of the United States Chamber of Commerce and I replied the Boy Scouts. In St. Louis we have a Junior Chamber of Commerce, where the boys receive instruction that qualifies them later to become members of the senior body. 'In the boy life of the country we have our most important problems. They must be properly prepared for future responsibilities, for the boy of today is the business man of tomorrow.'"

The speaker, in concluding his remarks, said that the United States Chamber of Commerce, to which the government looked to for advice and assistance, was a big factor in winning of the war."

H. C. Capwell, president of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, and Mayor John L. Dwyer each extended a cordial greeting to the visitors and paid tribute to the great work that has in the past and still is being done by the United States Chamber of Commerce for the development of this country."

Highlights From Ferguson Speech
At C. of C. Banquet

Some passages from the speech of Homer L. Ferguson, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, which called forth applause at the luncheon of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

We have 100,000 shipbuilders at work in our shipyards and they will all be out of jobs within a year unless the United States Government does something to help out in the way of a subsidy to the merchant marine or lending money to the shipyards at low interest.

The lesson must be taught that the only basis for having plenty is producing plenty.

Foreign trade must be kept up, unless American production is not to crash and recoil upon itself with a tremendous collapse. It is essential that we keep up the high standards of American labor. An American merchant marine cannot be built up if it is manned by cheap sailors working under cheap living conditions.

One very vital factor in world peace is that we have got to have our own means of communication and our own means of transportation. Freedom of the seas.

NOW ON WAY TO BUDAPEST

PARIS, Aug. 5.—(Havas)—Czechoslovak and British troops are on their way to Budapest to participate in the occupation of the city with the Rumanians, according to a dispatch from the Hungarian capital. French troops also will take part in the occupation of the city.

PARIS, Aug. 5.—(By The Associated Press)—The supreme council devoted most of its time today to a discussion of the Hungarian situation. Instructions were framed for the inter-allied military mission in Budapest, which is ordered to effect a withdrawal of the Rumanians from Budapest as soon as the Hungarian Red Guard is disbanded.

LONDON, Aug. 5.—Count Bethlen, leader of the Hungarian bourgeoisie, is reported to be preparing for a coup to put himself at the head of the Hungarian government, said a dispatch from Budapest to the Daily Express today.

TO REBUILD FRENCH FLEET. PARIS, Aug. 5.—Minister of Finance Louis Poincaré has been authorized by the cabinet to introduce a bill in the Chamber of Deputies granting 1,850,000,000 francs for the reconstruction of the French commercial fleet.

ard went on, "but this section is far and away more beautiful." The members of the party also gave praise to the district around Claremont and the Tunnel road and there were indications that property might be purchased in those sections by wealthy easterners for winter homes.

The Moore shipyard proved a revelation to the big business men of the east, also. More than an hour was spent there in closely inspecting every detail of shipbuilding as it is done in Oakland.

The Jingles in
The Headlines

Dan Cupid now is on the job and busy as yore, and wedding bells are ringing as they've never rung before; for as the boys come marching home they're met by Mary Ann, and soon we hear that Mary has been spliced with Captain Dan.

Theresa marries Private White, and Annie captures Fred, and Isabel lands her Ned; Miss Sallie Brown and Sergeant Smith are on their honeymoon, and scores of other weddings will be listed mighty soon.

Oh, Cupid plays us funny tricks which we can't understand, for after he has loosed a bit he works to beat the band; and though Young Dan was idle while the boys were all away, he now is working double shifts and scheming night and day.
